

Katie Wood

Research Associate
Traffic Injury Research Foundation

Katie Wood is a research associate with the Traffic Injury Research Foundation (TIRF), a non-profit, independent road safety institute. TIRF is a world leader in research, safety programs, and policy development.

Career and research highlights:

- > Katie has four years experience in public health research and research promoting behavioural changes. She has a grounded understanding of theoretical and decision-based research.
- > She has experience in various types of research, both qualitative and quantitative, including survey research, program and policy analysis and statistical analysis using SPSS and Stata.

- > Before joining TIRF, she worked as a Health Researcher at the Tampere School of Public Health in Tampere, Finland.
- > Additionally, she worked as a Research Assistant with Indiana Problem Gambling Awareness Program and with the Tobacco Retailer Inspection Program both at the Indiana Prevention Resource Center at Indiana University in Bloomington, IN.

Academic highlights:

- > Master of Public Health, 2009, Indiana University
- > Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, 2004, University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Professional memberships and affiliations:

- > Member of the American Public Health Association