

Bruce Scott

Vice President, Finance and Administration
Traffic Injury Research Foundation

Bruce Scott is Vice President, Finance and Administration with the Traffic Injury Research Foundation (TIRF), a non-profit, independent road safety institute. TIRF is a world leader in research, safety programs, and policy development.

Since joining TIRF in 2011, he has been responsible for all aspects of administration and finance for the Foundation. He is responsible for all financial accounting, including day-to-day expense monitoring, purchasing, invoicing, payroll and other payments. Bruce manages the organization's material resources, including equipment, travel and accommodation, furniture and supplies. He also provides advice with respect to project contracts, costings and timelines.

Bruce also provides support to project managers in the form of project expense reports and revenue collection procedures to assist in the financial management of all projects undertaken by TIRF. In this regard, Bruce has had many years of experience in scheduling and monitoring project personnel and resources.
